PROTECTING CHILDREN TODAY TO PREVENT ABUSE TOMORROW

NSPCC
Farnham Maltings, Bridge Square, Farnham, Surrey GU9 7QZ

ACTION

Abuse is like an angry storm in action... From afar, visitors will see the two sharp and unstable triangles against the building geometry. It sends a strong message of danger and conflict. The leaking light through broken holes on the canopy hinting of opportunity for healing within. Abuse information will be delivered to visitors in a cold and theatrical atmosphere

REACTION

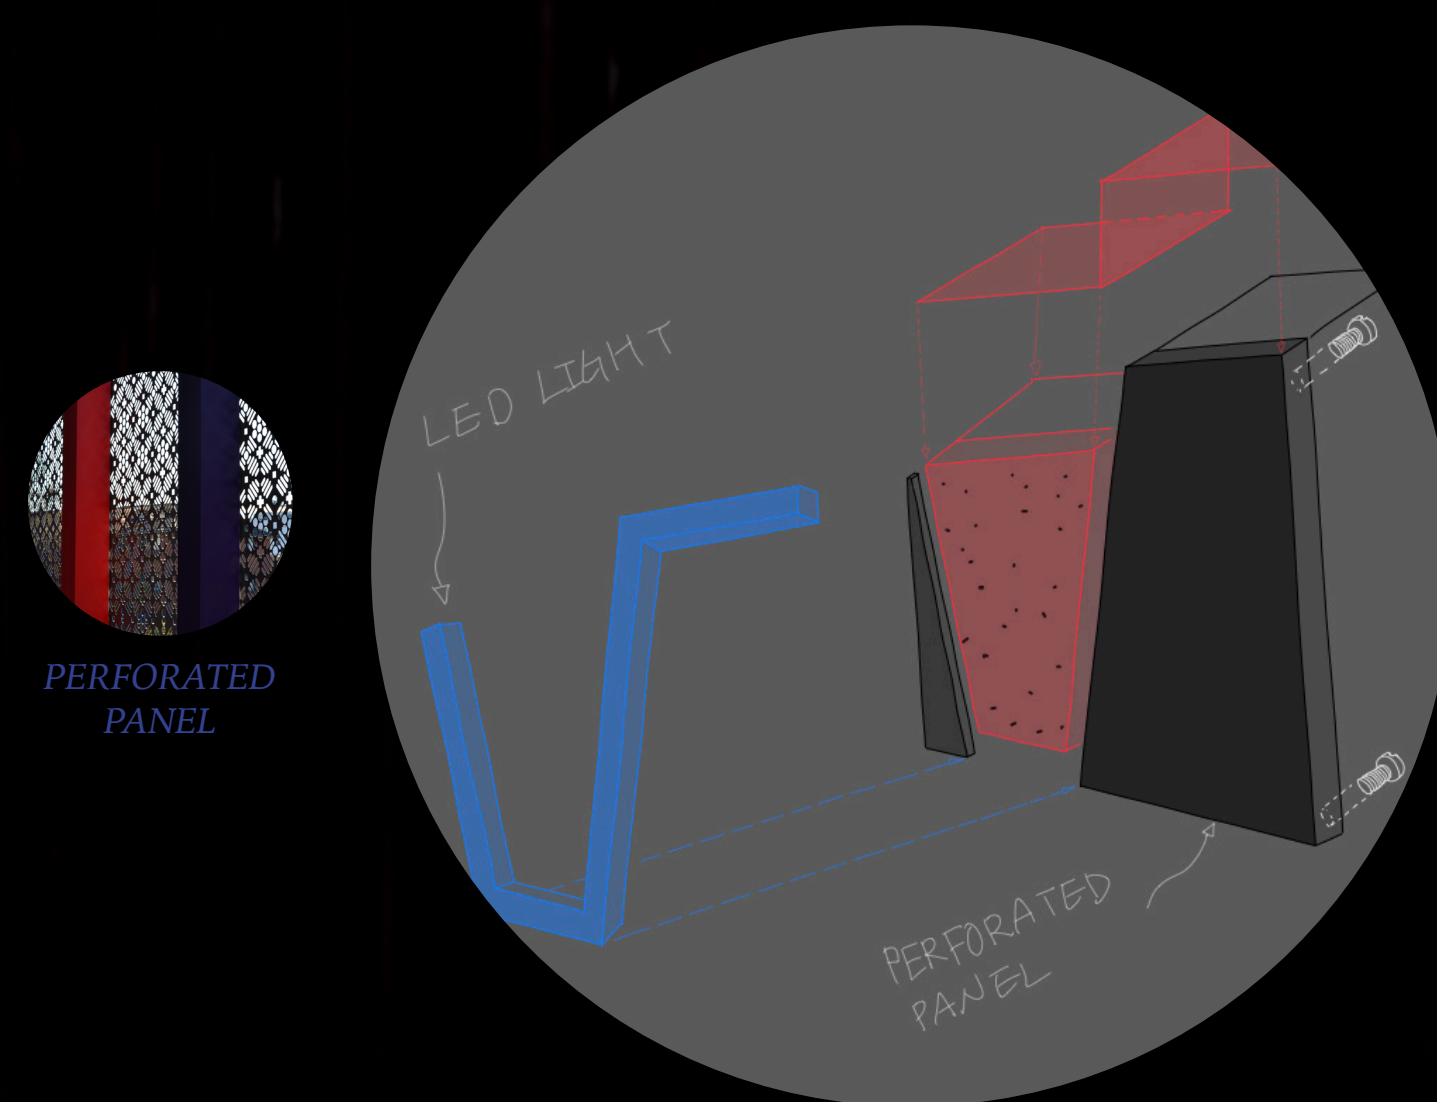

The emotional respond in a victim or an abuser is dark and trapped..."Trauma is not the bad things that happen to you, but what happens inside you as a result of what happens to you. Every human being is a true genuine authentic self. Trauma is a disconnect from it. And healing is to reconnect with it. Why do we get this reconnect? Because it's too painful to be ourself" - Dr. Gabor Maté - Walking through this area, visitors will receive a message "no matter how trapped we feel in the dark, there is always light at the end of the tunnel"

SOLUTION

Face it and change it, for the happiness and love you deserve! The stress of life can lead to a child being abused and neglected. Pursuing never landing GDP growth increases our life stresses, distances humanity and is unfair to a whole society. The best way to relieve negative emotions which is triggered by the stress of life, or by others, is diversion. In Physical Diversion area, visitors can physically break and make bottle lights. Or having a speaking and listening session in Sound Flow Cafe with the professionals.
