LITTLE BOY

With a boom, the shells came down on us and a horde of monsters and soldiers took over my hometown

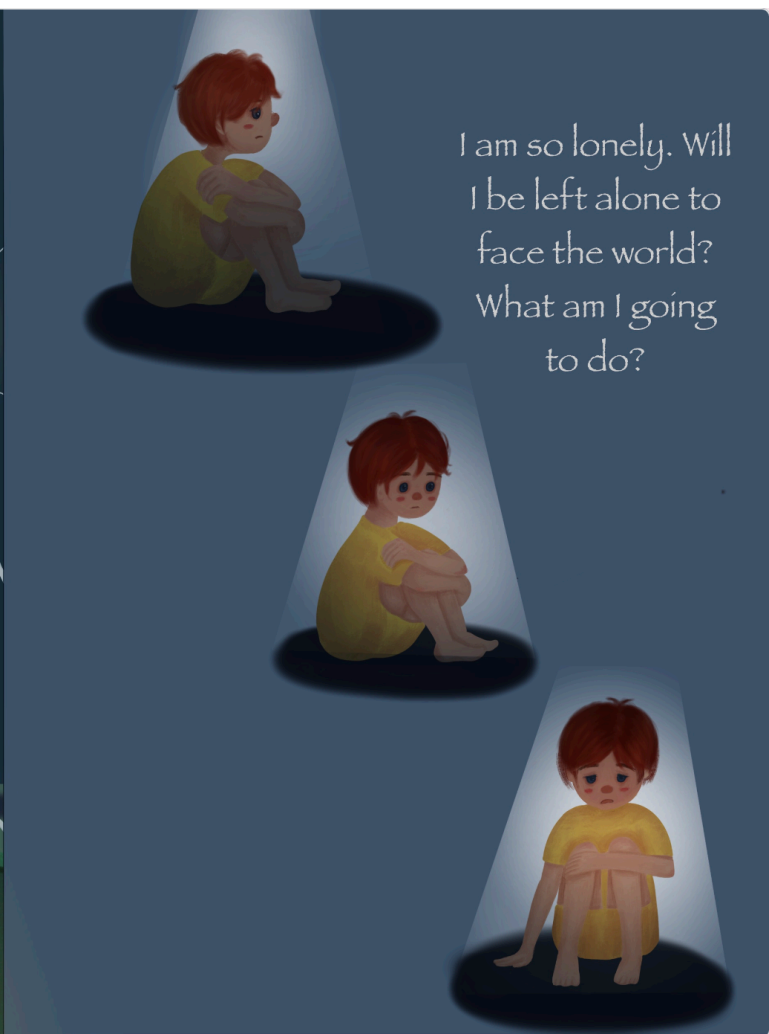

At night they would patrol and the other dolls and I wouldn't dare move .

Oh no, my brother
has been caught

I am so lonely. Will I be left alone to face the world?
What am I going to do?

Hi

Who are you?

Let me guard you, follow me and take you to the where you will find peace.

Shh, keep your voice down.

Oh, there are so many children who are locked up like me

we rescued other children

Thank you, my partner, we did a great job together!

I found that partner,
the one who made me brave enough to face the world
