

Felicia's Journey of Happiness

Written and illustrated by
Hetvi Jariwala

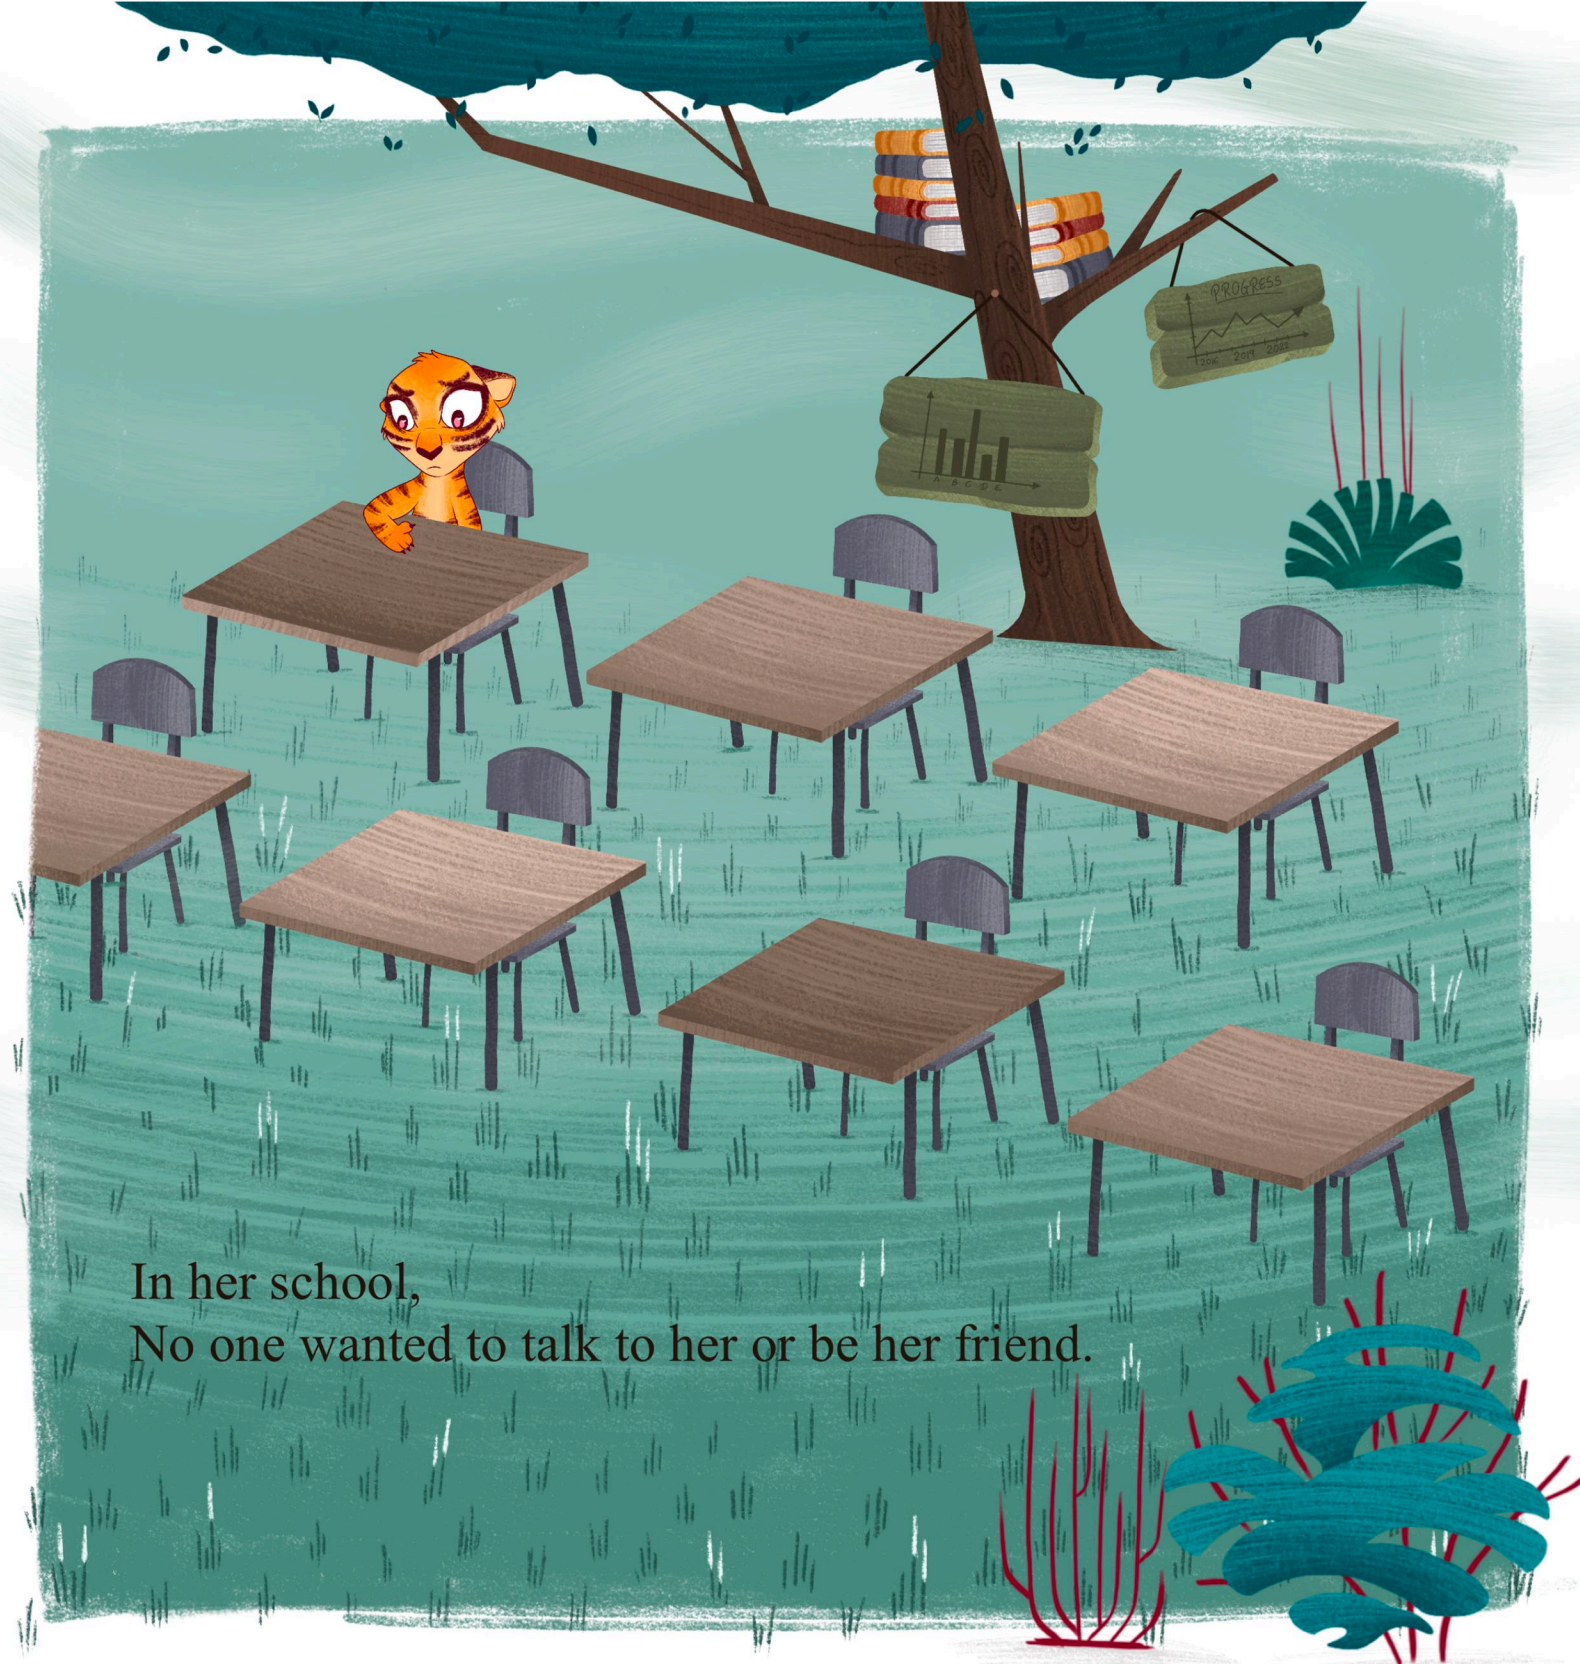

Felicia,
a dangerous-looking tigress,
Who is trying to discover herself...

Felicia's Journey of Happiness

Written and Illustrated by
Hetvi Jariwala

Everyone was scared
by her sharp teeth and pointed nails.

She wanted to tell her parents,
how she was feeling.
But she didn't want to upset them.

Her father noticed that Felicia was not happy.
He tried to understand her feelings.

At last, she decided to tell everything to her beloved father.

A night scene in a jungle. On the left, a large tree trunk has a small owl's face visible in a hollow. The background is a dark teal night sky with a full white moon and small white stars. In the foreground, a tiger mother with orange and black stripes sits next to her cub, who has lighter orange and black stripes. They are both looking towards the right. To their right is a large, dark brown tree stump. In the background, there are green hills and a vine hanging from the top right. The ground is covered in green grass and some red plants.

Father asked, “Do you know the meaning of your name?...”

“No”, she sadly said.

“Felicia means Be Happy. Be Bright. Be You” he explained.

“Every person has unique qualities that make them different from others. Don't lose hope. Just be YOURSELF.” he encouraged.

The next day she noticed, everyone was so impressed by one of her classmates, Foxy, Who is so smart in studies....

She tried to beat him.
But she scored less than Foxy in the exams.

Result:50
Foxy	48
Ruby	40
Pook	35
Felicia	30

Pooh is so good at baking cookies.
So she tried to learn it from him.

But that didn't go well...

She observed how beautifully
Marcel was playing a Cello.

So she tried to copy him.
Unfortunately, she ended up with a huge disappointment.

Felicia was feeling so scared,

so sad

and lonely

at the same time.

She just wanted to be alone.

At first, she felt better.

But soon that made her feel much worse.

Help...
Help...
Help...

After some time she heard Ruby's screaming.

A scary looking wolf was going to eat her.

Felicia loudly roared against the wolf and saved Ruby.

Felicia and Ruby
became good friends now.

She is so excited,

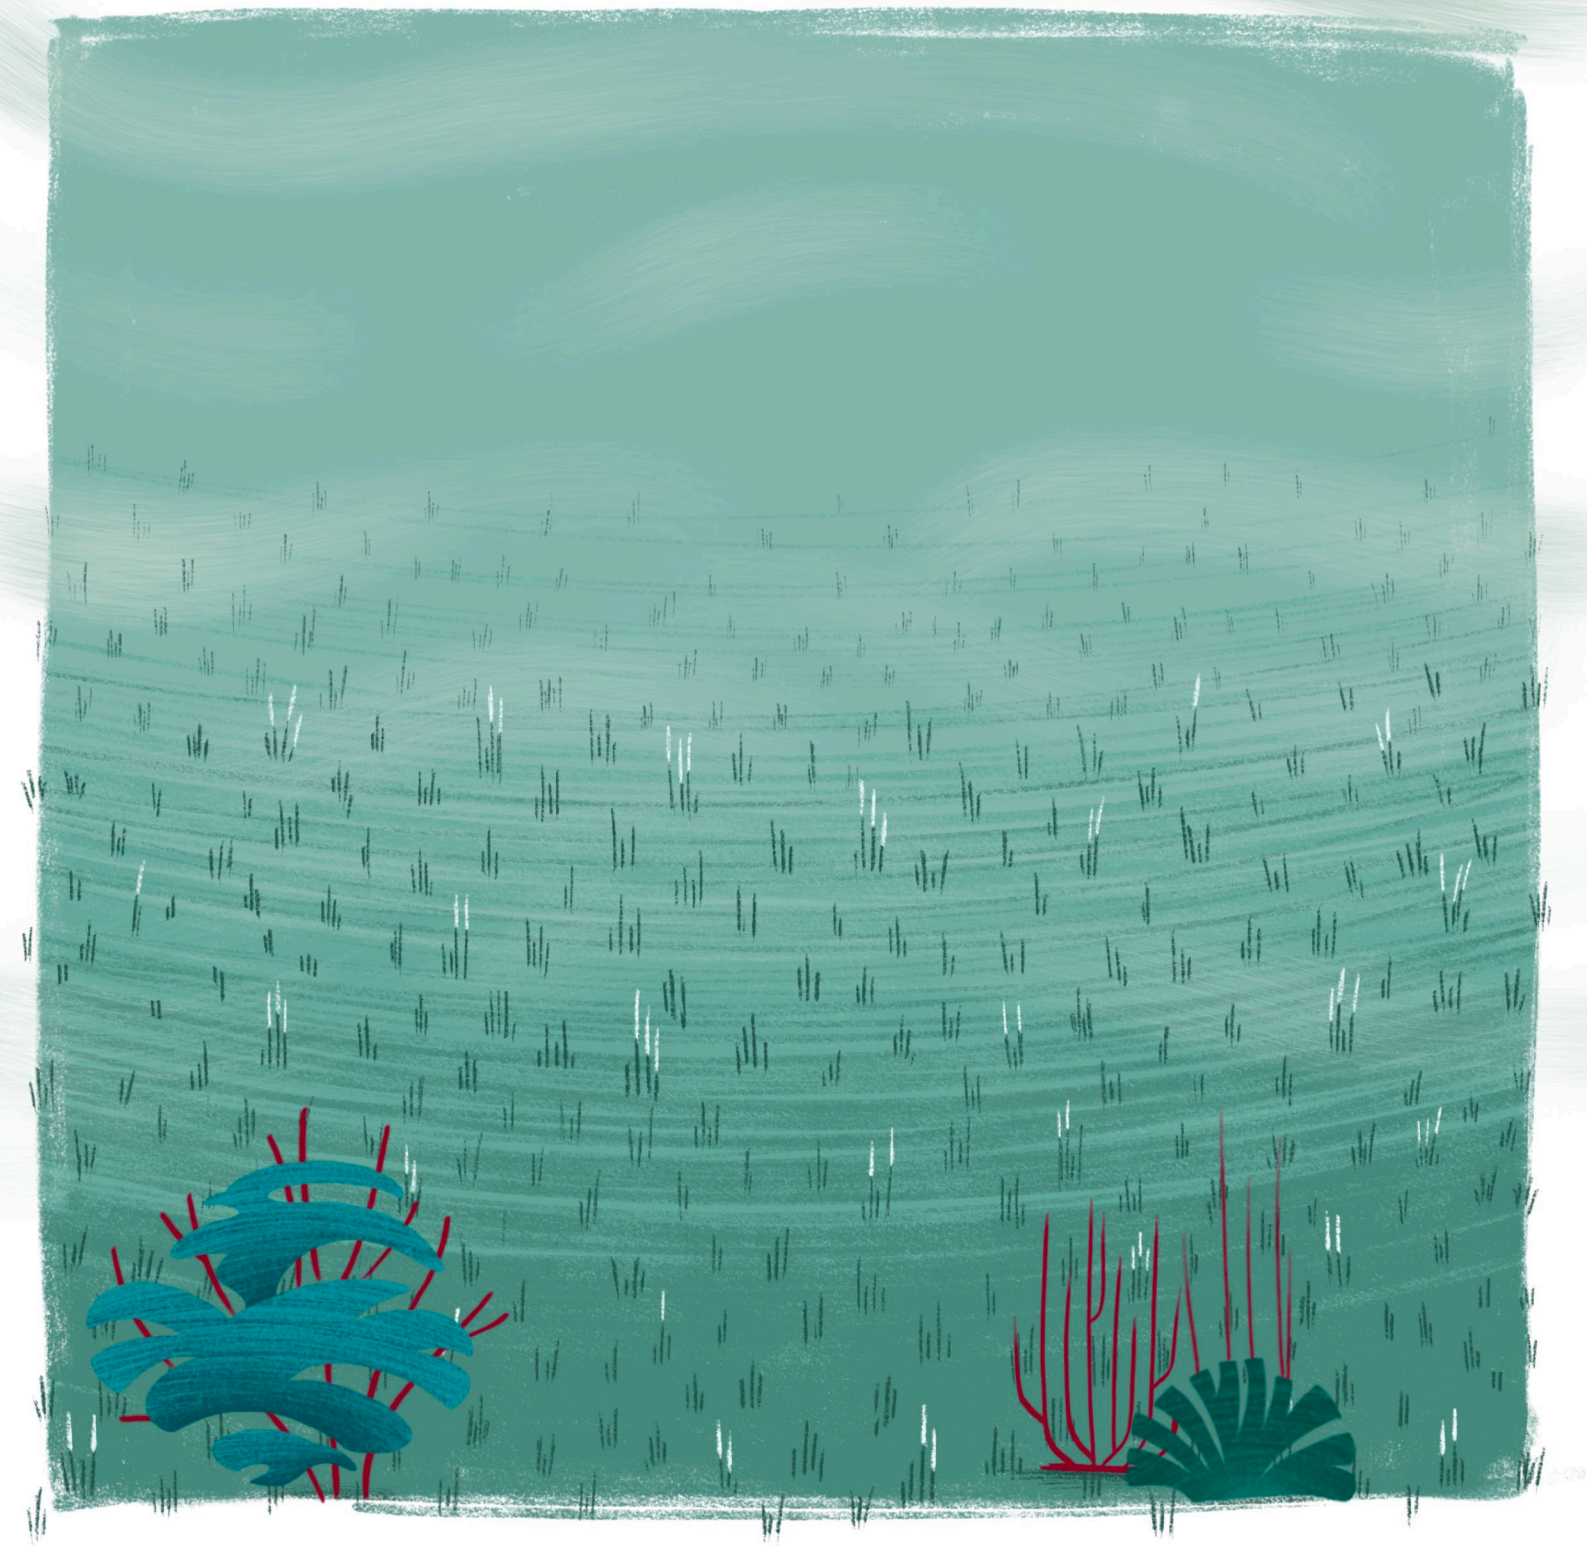

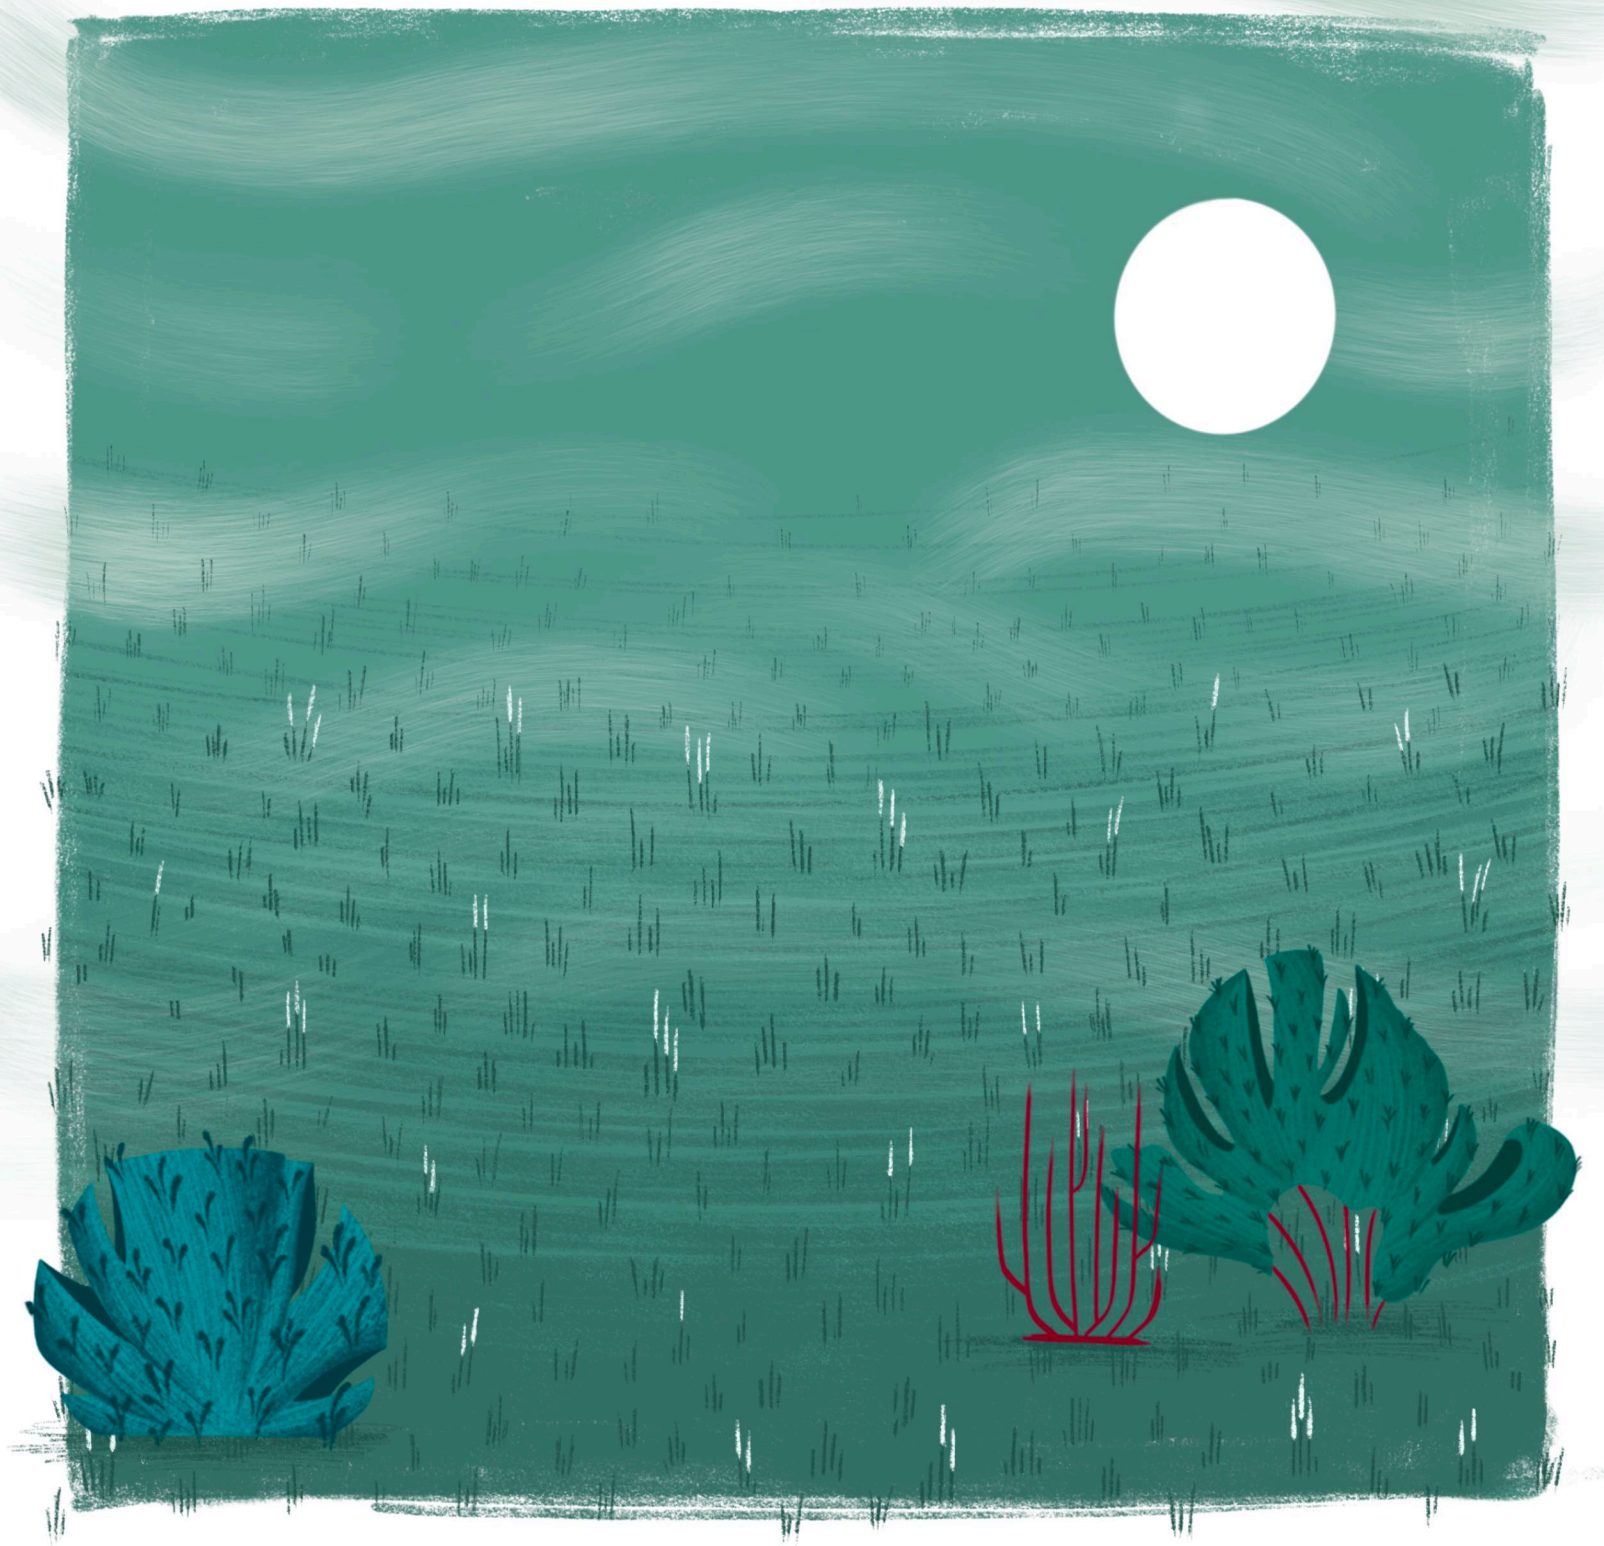

so curious

so happy

at the same time.

Finally, Felicia understand the meaning of
'Be YOURSELF'